نص حوار الترجمة الفورية:

A spokesperson for the Department for International Development (DfID) is giving an interview to a local journalist on the DfID's stated aim of reducing by half the proportion of the world's population living in extreme poverty by the year 2015. This would be achieved by implementing a White Paper entitled "Making Globalisation Work for the World's Poor". The local journalist has expressed scepticism about the value of similar initiatives. You have been asked to interpret at the meeting. The examiner will play the part of the local journalist and the invigilator will play the part of the DfID official.

A: DfID official B: local journalist

A: Thank you for giving me this opportunity to explain and expand on our programme as outlined in the White Paper. / / I'll try to answer any questions you have in the course of my explanation./ /

A: our initiative is based on globalization as its theme. //So, what we aim to do is trying to use globalization as a tool to reduce the proportion of the world's population living in extreme poverty.//

A: we believe that international trade links today mean that international cooperation is really the only way to help poorer countries.//

A: that is nothing new; both press and other media sources often give only one side of a problem.// if you look closer you will find that a global approach such as ours offers real hope for the world's poor// this hope is in terms of better education, health and quality of life.//

ب: نعم. ان كل ما يريده الشعب الفقير هو ماء نظبف يشربه و وظيفة لا تتعارض مع اسلوب حياته التقليدي. // و هذا بالتأكيد يعني انه يحتاج الى مبادرات و مساهمات محلية تهتم بالاوضاع المحلية، فهل تهتم مبادرتكم بالجانب المحلى من المشكلة؟ //

A: we see the initiative as an approach that combines both local and international contributions.// more specifically we are trying to make sure that the benefits of global trade go to the poor.//

A: we are trying our best to make it applicable in a practical way that will ultimately contribute to the welfare of the countries targeted by this initiative with the help of the world's countries.// most of them welcomed the initiative and promised to be part of it.// in all cases, we are still at the beginning of the journey since our initiative consists of short-termed and other long-termed goals that we hope to achieve by the end of 2015.// hopefully we will succeed.//

A: thank you very much.
