نص حوار الترجمة الفورية:

An English-speaking representative of UNICEF (United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund) is speaking to a recently- appointed official from the local Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MFA) who has enquired about the programme of World Vision camps which aims to help young people overcome the traumas of war. You have been asked to interpret at the meeting. The UNICEF official will start.

A = UNICEF official B = local MFA official

A: Lack of food and other physical problems clearly need to be dealt with. // But equally important is the damage which has been done to these young people's minds. //

A: The programme aims to repair the damage done to young people involved in wars. II We know for a fact that teenagers have been fighting in armies. You only need to look at Rwanda and Sierra Leone, for example, to know that. //

ب: نعم فالحروب لا تسبب اصابات ووفيات فقط, بل تسبب أيضا مشاكل نفسية. // الحروب يمكن أن تؤدي الى فقدان مدن وقرى وعائلات وأقارب وأصدقاء. // كما نسمع الكثير من القصص عن اشخاص أصيبوا باكتئاب و حالات نفسية صعبة جدا بسبب تجربة الحروب التى عاشوها // فما بالك اذا كان هؤلاء اطفال! //

A: Precisely. UNICEF has the resources and the commitment to give those young people a fresh start by setting up this programme of camps. / / These camps aim to help young people rebuild their lives through teaching them work skills as well as provide them with psychological help//.

ب: و هل تعتقد ان اليونسيف تستطيع مساعدة هذا العدد الكبير من الاطفال الذين يحتاجون الى الدعم؟//

A: We know we are facing an enormous task but at least some effort must be made. // step by step we'll become able to reach all those in need of our help.//

A: we have to admit that what you're saying is right.// but we're not working alone on this.// we coordinate with the other concerned parties in the UN, as well as our other partners of individual donors and humanitarian institutions.// with all the efforts put together and priorities arranged, eventually we can achieve something.//

A: yes, of course. Thank you very much.
